Dear Sister

I just heard of the death of Mr. Chamberlain a noble man has fallen and who I have always since I just know him regarded as an honest man he will be missed what will poor Martha do how she will miss him but so it is Our Sister we must not lay it to heart but know all is for the best Br Tupper wrote one but did not tell me about the particulars but we must all pass way to our final account

I sent you a letter from E T. Clark & wife & hope you [...] it with the same papers please remember me kindly to Martha & all the rest

Yours Truly

W O Clark
