Carlos Robinson Clark, 96, passed away March 16, 2007, at his home in Kaysville, Utah.

Image #1An image of Carlos Robinson Clark at a younger ageImage #2An image of Carlos Robinson Clark at 96 years oldHe was born on Feb. 4, 1911 in Afton, WY, to Hyrum Don Carlos and Mary Alice Robinson Clark. He married Marinda Call in the Salt Lake temple, Nov. 14, 1933 and had eight children. Marinda passed away, Nov. 3, 1958. He married Audrey Reeve Craner May 8, 1959 in the Salt Lake Temple. Audrey's 3 children were later sealed to Carlos and Audrey in Aug. of 1963. Together, he and Audrey had 3 more children, and they raised their large, blended family in Farmington.

Carlos was an electrician by trade and a farmer by choice, foreverworking hard to provide for his family. Once he retired he enjoyed camping, traveling, snowmobiling, and playing with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Audrey; children: Bruce (Melva), Linda Anderson, Daryl (Marlene), Diane (Rud) Warner, Judy (Glenn) Rice, Carla (Brent) Taylor, Kay (Gary) Gledhill, Carolyn (Lane) Sweat, Don (Glenda), Gary (Maurette); daughters-in-law: Lucy, Kay, and Sherlene; 59 grandchildren, 68 great-grandchildren, and 4 great-great grandchildren. Preceded in death by his first wife, Marinda, parents, brothers and sisters, sons: Kevin Jay, Ronald Carlos, Dennis Call, and John Thomas.

The family would like to thank the Rocky Mountain Home Care for their in-home services. Also, a special thanks to Diane and her family for their constant care, and to the Oak Hollow Ward for their love and support.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, March 20, 2007 at 1:00 p.m. at the Haight Creek Stake Center, 1520 Fox Pointe Dr., Kaysville, Utah. Friends and family may visit Monday evening, from 6-8 p.m. at the Russon Brothers Farmington Mortuary, 1941 N. Main (across from Cherry Hill Campground). There will also be a viewing at the church from 11:45 a.m.-12:45 p.m. prior to services. Interment: Farmington City Cemetery.
