My husband went to California on a Mission, 5, Jan. 1934.

I lived with our son-in-law and daughter, (Herma) in Salt Lake City, while he was away. We got along nicely together. They made me feel welcome in their home. They took me to Sacrament Meetings when I was able to go. They nursed me and took good care of me through some sick spells while I was in their home. I very much appreciate the love and kindness shown to me by all my dear children.

Hy husband returned from his Mission, 3, April, 1936. We moved back to our home in Farmington, 11, June, 1936. he is now working in the temple a great deal of the time.

My health is not very good this winter, so I am kept at home most of the time. Our son Carlos and his wife are here with us, at present. So Ieamrwell taken care of. We are glad to have them with us. My history, so far, was written in Jan, 1937.
