Title: With His Dad

Provenance:

Category: Image

Person: Amasa Lyman Clark

Date:

Amasa Lyman Clark, in his older years, looking down at a painting of his father, Ezra T. Clark, in front of a grandfather clock. The whereabouts of this painting is yet to be found, but was on display in the Davis County Bank for several years.

Kimball Clark, descendant of Ezra T. Clark, surmises the painting was likely given to a descendant of Ezra who was working in the bank at the time of its sell to First Security Bank, or another Clark relative known by the bank's owners, or it was provided as an asset in the sell of the bank. If anyone knows the whereabouts of this painting, please reach out to the Ezra T. Clark Family Organization found at EzraTClark.com
