Elder Ezra T. Clark,

Farmington

Dear Brother:

Believing that all details with regard to the demise of your son, no matter how meager, will be of interest and comfort to you, I send, by direction of the First Presidency, copies of two letters received by them yesterday from Pres. A. H. Lund, in which he forwards all information received by him, regarding the sad event, at the time of his writing.

With kindest regards

Your Brother
