DO YOU WISH?

Do you wish the world were better?

Let me tell you what to do:

Set a watch upon your actions,

Keep them always straight and true.

Rid your mind of selfish motives;

Let your thoughts be clear and high—

You can make a little Eden

Of the sphere you occupy.

Do you wish the world were happy?

Then remember day by day

Just to scatter seeds of kindness

As you pass along the way:

For the pleasure of the many

May be oft times traced to one,

As the hand that plants an acorn

Shelters armies from the sun.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Do you wish the world were wiser?

Well suppose you make a start,

By accumulating wisdom

In the scrap-book of your heart.

Do not waste one page on folly;

Live to learn and learn to live,

If you want to give men knowledge

You must get it, ere you give.

The true way to be humble is not to stoop till you are smaller than yourself, but to stand at your real height against some higher nature that shall show you what the real smallness of your greatness is.—Phillips Brooks.

With truth as your guide, your companion, your ally and inspiration, you tingle with the consciousness of your kinship with the. Infinite, and all the petty trials, sorrows and sufferings of life fade away like temporary, harmless visions seen in a dream.—W. G. Jordan.
