Booklet on Hyrum Don Carlos Clark
Mother passed away June 12th, 1927. Father was released from his Calif. Mission. Soon after this he took Aunt Mary to the Logan Temple where she was sealed to him.	On the ranch she and Heber helped milk the cows. At times she helped with fences. "Father was finicky about meat."
Mary Bennion often said: "We were known as the family that never quarreled." Now I earnestly pray the Lord to abundantly bless Father's big and lovely Family.	Notes from March 7, 1982 Edna said that the FATHER I (Morrell) knew, was overburdened; he had "pressure"; and was "not the calm and deliberate FATHER that I (Edna) knew.)
Sincerely your brother and constant friend, (signed) Heber Don Carlos Clark	While Father was courting Mother (Eliza Porter) one time they were near the Weber River, and near the mouth of Weber Canyon, and Father asked: "If I'd catch the fish, would you fry it?" She replied: "Yes, you catch the fish and I'll fry 'em."
