Funeral services will be held Saturday, February 3, 2018, at 11:00 am at the Farmington South Stake Center, 695 South 200 East, Farmington, Utah. There will be a viewing from 9:45-10:45 am, prior to the services. Interment, Farmington City Cemetery.

Audrey Reeve Clark, 91, passed away January 25, 2018. She was born November 18, 1926 to William Percival Reeve and Amanda Peterson Bott. She was the sixth of seven children. She married George Craner September 16, 1946 and had three children. George passed away December 27, 1953. She married Carlos Robinson Clark May 8, 1959 in the Salt Lake Temple. They joined her three children and his seven children to make one family. Later, Audrey and Carlos added three more children to the family. They raised their blended family in Farmington. Carlos passed away March 16, 2007.

Audrey received her degree from Utah State and taught school for 26 years before retiring in 1986. She was a member of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers and a Farmington Literacy Club member. She enjoyed reading, singing, gardening, canning, sewing, traveling, and being with her family.

She is survived by their children Bruce (Melva), Linda Anderson, Daryl (Marlene), Diane (Rud) Warner, Judy (Glenn) Rice, Carla Taylor, Kay (Gary) Gledhill, Carolyn (Lane) Sweat, Don (Glenda), Gary (Maurette); daughters-in-law Lucy and Sherlene; 60 grandchildren; 105 great-grandchildren; 81 great-great grandchildren and her brother John Reeve.

She was preceded in death by her husband Carlos; children Ronald, Dennis, Kevin, and John; son-in-law Brent Taylor; daughter-in-law Katherine; three sisters; two brothers; and her parents.

The family would like to thank Symbii Home
