His life and all taken and put in their innocence & purity It is true it touches a tender chord in our hearts.

Spoke of these twins as whose life was paid for by the death of their mother Children born under the covenant will be saved through the faithfulness of the Parents. Said he would like to speak comfort to those who listen.

Elder Evan Richards spoke. With me living so long life seems conditional while with this child it seems un conditional A state of pro bation We meet together to mourn and to condole with the father and relatives

Elder D.A. Robinson, the father, said that if he can control his feelings he feels led to say a few things. For the last opportunity for the child also 896 after christ John the revelator saw the presen tations restoration John saw a blessed I cannot mourn as I have mourned. She was more faithful than I speaking of Mary as the better half and it has gone to be with its mother. After the administra tion it went as fast as it could. asked the administration in that it recover speedi ly or if it is to die that it go without being allowed to suffer
