Elder Daniel Robinson spoke of the resurrection, of the deaths in his own family and of the remark & man-made as he viewed his wife for the last time "you are no more mine." What a difference we have a lot that many know nothing about. She said Brad Robinson, do you think the people will be willing to fast and pray for me while she undergoes the surgical operation.

Prest Fry spoke of his cause of bereavement as to death in and of his own mother and family. Spoke of the high esteem held for Sister Richards. It touches a tender chord. Referred to his acquaintance (Jo Penman) taking his own life (hanging) We want to live right so we will not be ashamed to goto take up again the body

Prayed the Lord to bless these boys and others of the family.

Prest Samuel Frances said he was glad so much good can be said of Sister Richards. Referred to the sisters of Lazarias remarking to Jesus. Spoke of the testimonies of the resurrection especially of the evidences, through Joseph the Prophet and Oliver Coudesry.

Let us cling to the promise that the prayer of faith shall heal (save) the sick.

Exhorted the sons to be good and this will be a comfort to their father.

Prest Wm. H. Rich spoke of the difference between death [...]and the world. Spoke on the behalf of the Latter Day Saints.

B[...] Anderson said he would say more words, which were that he knows of nothing to hinder her from receiving the [...]
