Interview with Orson Clark
Interviewed by Clark S. and Ruth Knowlton	Orson Clark: I was born at that address. I was at about the age of four when my folks moved down to what we called the Rock House.
23 November 1981
Interviewer: Where were you born, Orson?	Interviewer: That's the one across the street. That is where I was raised.
Orson Clark: In Farmington.	Interviewer: What was the address of that? Do you remember the address?
Interviewer: What year?
Orson Clark: The year? 1898.	Orson Clark: Yes. What was it? I think it is 368, she'll look it up.
Interviewer: And your father's name was?	Interviewer: How many Clarks still live on the street here?
Orson Clark: Edward Barrett Clark.
Interviewer: And your mother's name?	Ruth Knowlton: As of right now, ·1981. [not sure if this is an accurate response to the interviewer's questionit was probably a comment made in the
Orson Clark: Wealthy Richards Clark.	background?]
Interviewer: Where were your parents born?	Orson Clark: I think there are only two by the name of Clark that live on this street. Would you like to
Orson Clark: Both of them were born in Farming- ton.	know something about the early history?
	Interviewer: Yes I would, very much.
Interviewer: So then you would be the third gener- ation in Farmington. Where you born in Farming- ton?	Orson Clark: When Grandfather Clark was one of the early
Orson Clark: The location of the.house, do you want that? The location of the house is 111 North Main Street.	[serial number along the bottom right]
