nowadays & I have learned to like see it even many young men take great pains to kink their hair & a certain amount of eternal pride I think commendable if they don't get vain over it. I expect the youth have reading courses lessons the crucial contact with such as attend these gatherings helps to develop & gives richness into the lives of all participating. I meet lots of nice individuals & converse with them nicely on our doctrine & many can see we have more than others have & many will come to the knowledge of the fullness of the Gospel. Many thousands even Cal, now are members & there is to be & more stakes organized soon making 5 stakes, I think it is fine for every young person to become acquainted with the doctrines, so to be able to teach it to others & especially to line is one self, nothing equals is it put into every day life. When we consider that we have all the same attributes that God has that it is made possible for us to become perfect as he is become a joint heir with Jesus Christ is enough to make us fear lest we slip and fall short thru or because of the weakness of mortality, we all need the help + mercy of the Lord in our behalf. We need to cooperate with him in our own behalf. All blessings are predicated on obedience to law. We all have our agency & a consciousness of right & wrong. We should have a purpose in life + a desire to attain to is
