Date:

Feb. 9, 1894

Go on Brooklyn Bridge. It is a fine structure suspended across the river.

Feb. 10, 1894

Board ship for England.

Boat-Guion, Cunard line

Bros. George Scott and Alma Johnson joined our party.

We are all affected by the motion of the ship while crossing.

Feb. 17, 1894

Reach Liverpool safely. Bros. T.E. Taylor is down at the dock to greet us. After passing through the custom house we find our way to 42 Islington. We are very tired and sleepy. Enjoy very much our supper of bread and milk at Mrs. Stewart's Hotel.

Feb. 18, 1894

At Stewart's Hotel. It seems quite homelike in Liverpool. Attend meeting with a branch of the church. Go to the art building or museum, go down to the docks to look around, go to meeting in the evening.

Feb. 19, 1894

Bro. Lund is in Liverpool and assigns the elders their respective fields of labor, and directs me to London to remain until after the London conference next Sunday.

Feb. 20, 1894

Go to London, 36 Penton St. Islington. Bro Hall in Pres. of the conference. Spend the evening at Bro. Bruce's.

Feb. 21, 1894

Visit Royal Agricultural Hall and the College of Surgery.

Feb. 22, 1894

Visit Hyde Park, see Albert Prince Consort's memorial and visit Kensington museum and ride on the underground r.r.
