problems in raising her family. She taught her children to meet their problems on their knees in prayer and to solve their problems with good hard work. Her home was always a place of happiness and love, a place where friends were always welcome. On Christmas, Thanksgiving, and birthdays, she would have us meet together as a family. She taught her children to be faithful in the Church. Mother is proud of her children and grandchildren and great grandchildren and their talents and many accomplishments. Her life leaves much for all of us to emulate.

LG: I appreciate you taking the time today to talk to me, Sister Cook and also LaRue.
