These letters elaborate on how Eliza Avery Clark, daughter of Hyrum Don Carlos Clark, married into the Wilford Woodruff family. Note Wilford was a dear friend to Ezra T. Clark. Avery married Abraham Woodruff, Wilford's son and apostle, as Abraham's second wife. Avery only had one child through Abraham, after Abraham's death from smallpox. Abraham's first wife Helen also died from small pox, both in 1904.

of the night. Sister Woodruff was quite bad last night is breaking out very badly. At 7:40 p.m. Prest. Ivins wife and 2 daughters Miss Taylor and Eliza Clayson left for home on the Central train. Bro Woodruff is going to try to get Lozado or Juana to come down and assist us then he wants me to do the running for them. The mission headquarters were changed to 23 _____.

Monday May 30

This morning Bro Pomeroy procured a trained nurse to wait on Sister Woodruff so Bro Woodruff told me to disinfect well so I could stay on the outside and run errands so I changed clothing all around and took a good bath, saturating all my clothes with carbolic acid. Sister Woodruff has a bad case of smallpox and is very sick.

Tuesday May 31

Bro Woodruff discharged the nurse as she did not understand her business and charged 15.00 a day. So he asked me to return to the sick room and assist but as I got ready to change my clothes we heard that Juana was coming so as I was needed for errands I stayed out.

Wednesday 1st

I put in a hard day to day buying drugs groceries etc. I went up town about 12 times some of the times on foot and some of the times in the car. Sister Woodruff is a little better but still very sick. Juana is a great help in this trouble.

Thursday 2nd

I again spent the day running errands up town was on the go all day long buying medicine and things for Sister Woodruff to eat she is gradually getting better but is very weak and very much discouraged in fact she asked for Bro Woodruff to pray for her to die the eruption is very painful.

Friday 3

As Bro Woodruff was so worn out and needed help as bad, I decided at his suggestion to return to the sick room and help wait on Sister Woodruff. The eruption had developed so much that I was about frightened when I saw her. Great white blisters filled with pus were standing out all over her body and wherever they had broken were sores it was a terrible sight. As Bro Woodruff was so worn out and Bro.Henning not well I watched the patient all night alone except that I called Juana a couple of times to assist me. There was scarcely a minute all night when I wasn't working with her.
