terrible cough. She has been doctoring with a doctor in Joliet he said it was an affection of the throat that it have not reached her lungs.. George Sisson was not satisfied with his treatment and he has gone to Chicago with her they have been gone three or four days. I shall look for them back tomorrow if she does not receive any benefit Barrett is very anxious that she should cross the plains but it seems to me like a hard trip for one out of health it seems to me that she must be cured but God only knows..I do not know why we do not hear any thing from Brother William he wrote a line or two the
