PARTING INSTRUCTIONS

I am impressed in this the evening of life, to admonish my family of the importance of devoting some measure of their time to Temple work, and it is my wish that a genealogical record be prepared to include as many of my ancestors as it is possible to get information about and when this record shall have been completed, it is my most earnest wish that I may have, as often as possible, a representative in one of the Temples of my Heavenly Father to perform the work for the dead.

If I could behold the spirit of union and mutual love and support in the conduct of my family as I
